4 5.1, b 5.3. 6 5.1.

d 5.6.

£ 6.7.

ès.11.

k 5.84. 15.19.

m 5.21.

MONTH TO THE PROPERTY OF THE P PATTERNS OF PRAY-ERS FOR THE SEVERALL MEMBERS OF A FAMILY.

gathered out of the fore-named Treatifes of Domefticall Dunes.

A Prayer for such as intend Marriage.

Heauenly Father, & Fountaine of all blef-fing, by whole providence I am now come to maturity of yeeres, b made a' le to performe the effentiall duties of marriage, and efreed from fuch noyfom and contagious difeafes as might bring prejudice to a bedfellow. Seeing it hath pleased thy divine wisdome to Iantifie marrlage voto all fuch for a remedy against vocleannelle, and for a meanes to keepe them undefiled members of Christsbody, I hun bly befeech thee to pardon all my finnes past, to preserve mee from all inordinate lusts, and to prouide for mee. a meete yoke fellow : meete in age, fin eftate and condition, but especially h in piety. Keepe therefore mine heart I pray thee, from being bewitched with beauty of face, or comcline fe of person turne my minde from conetousnesse, and ouer-greedy defire of wealth; yea and from ambitious affectation of great friends, about that estate wherein thou halt set me. Let me first haue affurance of mine owne spirituall vnion with the Lord Iesus, that from him, as an head, I, as one of his members, may teceiuc ability to doe good to that mate which thou haft prouided for me; and that the faid mate may have capacity to receive good from me, and ability to do good to me. Let it be not only a profesiour of the true religion, but alfo a lively member of Christs mysticallbody. And thou Lord, in whose hand the hearts of all are, to turne them whether it pleafeth thee, fet the heart of me, and of thar mutuall helper which thou haft prouided for me, vpon each other in a feare of thy name. Give vagrace in fo weighty a businesse to proceed according to the direction of thy word, with confent of fuch as have charge overvs, with adule of wife and godly friends, and l.y those degrees that are warranted and finctified by thy word : as an holy contract; la religious confectation, and ma due celebration thereof: that asit is thorow thy gracious dispensation an occasion of reloyeing, to our resoycing may be in thee, O Lord . Thefe bleffed Trinity in Vnity) didft by majure counfell adulfe about this estate, and didlt institute the same in the excellentest place, at the purelt time, to the honourable st persons, and after the most deliberate manner that euer any ordinance was in litured : whereby it came to paffe, that a moil meet helpe was made for man. . An helpe meet for multiplication of his kinde, for propa. gation of an holy feed, for prefernation of our veffels in holineffe and honour, and for mutuall fosiery and fuccour in all eftares. And to flew how honourable an éstate thou wouldest l'aue this to ber, befides the P many ontward priniledges appertaining thereto, thou haft a thereby fet out the most holy and heavenly vnion of P 5.25. Christ and his Church: fo as it is in many respects' much honoured aboue the vnmaried and fingle estate. Make me therefore, I heartily entreatthee, wife menterprizing a matter of fuch 16.17. moment that by no indirect courses, or prepo-

6.33.

'مدوه

15.28.

5€.30

honourand glory how and for euer. Amen. A Prayer for Hust ands and Wines in regard of the mutuall and soynt duties whereunto they are both bound.

therous enterprising therof, in fleed of rejoicing, I finde cante of mourning : Heare me, O Lord,

I befeech thee, in this my humble & carneft fute, forthy Sonne my Saujour Jefus Christ his fake.

to whom with thee, and thy holy Spirit becall

Most inighty and merciful Lord God, who by thy wife-ordering-providence hast madevs two one flesh, and logned vs together. by the neerest and firmest bond of all, which is marri ge, to knit our licarts together, we humbly befecch thee, as a matrimoniall vnity may cut be kept inuiolable betwirt vs : and a thought of b defertion neuer enter into either of our foules. Let thy feare to possesse our hearts, as we skeep our bodies the temples of the holy Ghoft, in all purity and charlity; & he fo watchfull over the powers of our foile, & parts of our bodies, ouer our company, over our dict and apparell, and o. belsings for that estate which I now intend, I were dery thing that we take in hand, as wee bec for the feuerall men	nbers of a Family.	Parg. 1.

5.to 5.ts.	finne of Adultery: but rather yeelding due be- neuolence one to another, we may mutually de- light one in another. For this end, as our per- fons are knit together by the indifolloble bond of marriage, for linke our bearts together by the inuiclable bond of mutuall matrimonial loue: cuenf fuchloue as may make vs keepe the vnity	that afterwards the like may be avoided a year that by our after-good carlage we may gaine faich good name as may cleane but our the fire of pheformer liname: and the two to be afted by with the vertues wherewith & please the to endue either of vs, and with the fweet fauour which thence arifeth, as we may fixe whereby	55.34 -35,
5.13. 5.14.	of the Spirit in the bond of peace: that there bee no lealoufies, no offences, and contentions be- twixt vs. Make vs alfo, wee pray thee, h mutu- ally provident one for another: wherein that	that we are affected with the good name of one another as of our owne. Keepe vs therefore from the vices which may make vs difcredit one another: as blazing abroad one anothers infirmi-	4 $.37.
$ 15.	we may doe one another the more good, make vscuer willing to dwell together 1 and 1 when there is iust cause of absence for a time, let vs take all occasions of testifying our present mind- fulnesse of one-another, and longing desire one	ties, opening our eare to every rash report, tur- ning all things to the worst, enuying and gaine- faying good reports of one another. And asin thy wissome thou hast made vs an helpe each to other, even in regard of our outward estate, after another. And, good Father, so power on ws the spirit of supplication, as we alwaies with- out ceasing may call upon the the fountaine of all blefsing, and in our prayers bee mutually	give vs wissione, O Lord, to extend our mutu- all provident care thereunto, that in our severall places we may as two hands of the same body, ioyntly endeauour to preserve and encrease the same 1 that as by too much courtousessee we 15.19.	mindfull of one another: and take all occafion of praying joyntly together. And now being here both together before thee, were earnefly befeech thee to 1 make vs. whom thou haft made one fleth, to be one fight; to joynt members of the myfticall body of Chrift; and for to fandtife our	fecke not to ferape all to our felues. To reither by prodigality wee wafte the effate, nor by idlenes neglic the fame.  "And as thou haft made vs loynt parents of the fame children, and loynt governors of the	They who fellowship, that we may truly rejoyce one in another, and blesse thee from our hearts one for another: let our bed euer remaine a bed vndefiled: blesse with children, and blesse vs in them; blesse with a competent estate, and with all	"fame houshald, fo (Lord) make vs in our "distinct places a diske carefull for the goods, duration of our children and gouernment of our family, and of all our feruants therein that being by thine ordinance under the same yoke,	thay leave out this.
M 5+20.	needfull gifts and gracesskeepe vs from withing any hurt one to another, and from imprecating any ill one against another. Guevs we befeech thee, not only a minde to with well one to ano-	"wee may both draw the fame way, and e not "one thwart the other, nor put off all the eare, "from one to another, and refue to adde our beful helpe; much less which belong to vsboth, these joynt duties which belong to vsboth,	1
#5.12. $.14.	ther, but also ability and willingnesse to doe good one for another, and that in our soules, bo- dies, estate, and good name. In our soules, by edifying one another: that wee who on earth	Yea, I ord, we befeech thee to make vsofone heart and minde, in affording hospitality ac- cording to our ability vnto such christians as	l .
p 5.25.	are foncerely united, may not after this life bee feperated as far as heauen is from hell. For this end giue vs wifdome to P preuent fio one in ano- ther, by remoning all flumbling blocks, and oc-	come to our honfe, whether kindred or others, (s without grudging one againft another there- in) and in b relecting the poore also, left wee should by vaniercistinesse cause many curses to the angle of the poor of the control of the control  These angle of the poor	$ 5.43. 6 5.44. i 5.45.
q 5 16. r 5.17.	casion of sin; and also to a redessife sin by all the good courses that we can thinke of. Give vs. a- bility, we pray thee, to help forward the growth of grace in one another, by manifesting our ap- probation thereof; yea	And let not our fins cause thy wrath to fall vp-	1
1	rence, good example, and holy exercises of picty both publike and private. Make vs further care-	humbly beleech thee, whether they naue beene	1
$6.20.	full ouer one anothers bodies, to nourish and cherish them in health & in sicknes: not grudg-	against any other person, or any other way a-	:
£ 6.30.	ing arthe cost that is laid our, or at the paines that is taken thereabout. Let also the "christian credit and good-name of one-another be mutually precious to vs. so as we "speake of one ano-	gainst thy facred Maiesty and holy Law, and that for Icsus Christ his sake, in and by whom, thorow the assistance of thy holy Spirit, we de- fire that thy name may be glorified by vs and ox 5.32.	ther fuch things as tend thercunto, and it op all cuill reports, and difference, as much as in visiteth,	thers in our fenerall places now and for euer.
y 5.33.	all flanders: and if by either of vs iust cause of an coill name bee given, give vs grace in eckly and wifely to make it knowne one to another,
•	1

4 §, 2,

66.30

16.4.

46.5.

f 5.7.

ξς.8. ξς.9.

i 6. 10.

46.11.

16.12.

6. 16

0 6. 176

$ 6.18.

15.19.

r §. 10.

∫ 5.28,22. oı.

15, 33.

. 6. 28.

S. 39.

3 5. 41:

4 5. 44. 6 5.45.

4 5. 46.

1 5.48.

f 6. 49,

$ 5. 40.

m 6. 13.1.

A Prayer for a Wife to vee.

"Hine(O Lord of heaven and earth is power and wiscdome : thou hast a supreme and abfolute Soueraignty over all the children of men: thy feruants they are, and in the place where thou fetteft them, they ought contentedly and obediently to abide. In thy wisedome thou half appointed a wife to be under her Husband and half in thy word given him dominion over her. Her fubication is the straiter, by reason of her great fin in tempting her Husband to dilobey thee. Now(O God of mercy)! befeech thee to acquit me of the guilt of that finne in particular, and to pardonall other my fins, and to bring my will in fubication enery way to thy holy & bleffed will. For this end fo worke vpon * my defire, as it may be subject to mine Husband. b Informe therefore my judgement of the equity of that order which thou hast fet betwixt man and wife : that the common mutuall power which is in many have over the same children and servants. may not make me inferre equality betwixt them:but that I, knowing an Husband to bee his wives head, a may so account my Husband to be vnto me, e whatfoeuer he were before mariage : and answerably f beare an inward, awfull respect towards him & not fuffering any occasion to make me defpife him : but h outwardly also reverence him: manifesting this my reuerence both by my behausour in all wine-like fobriety without wantonnelle, i mildnelle without shrewishnelle, k courtefic without fcorne, and I modefty without pride, and also m by my reuerend speech to him before his face, and " of him behinde his back. And that this reverence may not freme complementall, make me willing to v yeeld all due obedience to him without any stoutnesse against him. And feeing it hath pleased thee to give mean Husband of P sufficient understanding, giue me, I befeech the, an heart willing to be ordered by him, and to 9 expect his confent in the things I doe, I not prefuming to doe any thing that belongeth to his authoritie simply without, or directly against his consent, whether it bee in disposing the common goods of the Family, yea, vnto charitable vies (" except in case of necellitie)or " in ordering Children, and y feruants, or *entertaining Strangers, or iourn ying abroad, or binding my felfe by any voluntary vow. And that I may give further cuidence of my willing subjection to mine Husband, whom thou, O Lord, hast serouer me, worke in me a readinelle to dwell where he will have me to dwell, b to come when he calleth, and c to doe what he requireth. And a incasche reproue me, worke in me meeknesse and patience well to beare every reproofe, and e wisedome to redrelle what is inftly reproued; and with all make me fo f content with mine Husbands effate, as I may no way gricue his spirit by s upbraiding him with my £ $. 50. mariage, or by my impatient carriage, or by lothnesse to floope to his estate, or to helpe to repaire the decayednesse thereof. And for the h manner 4 5.54 of my subjection to mine Husband, let it be such as the Churches subjection is to thee O Lord 16. 15. Chrift, i in all humility k without p ide; i in all 4 5. 16. fincerity," without diffimulation: " in all cheere-16 57. fulnesse, o without sullennesse : and P constantly # S. 18. I without intermitting or relinquist ing my good # 5. 59. courfe. And for the extent of my fub ection, 0 g. 00. p 5.61. Lord, let it be in all things In a hich respect give 1 5.62. megrace, I pray thee, I fo to fulpe & mine owne r 6.62. iudgement, as in matters quettionable I endea 1 5.64. uour to bring my judgement and will to the bent of mine Husbands : and t in indifferent 1 6 66. things to yeeld to him, and u not be too peremp u 5.67. tory in mine owne will. But yet in all my fub. iection to him, let mine eye be fo fixed on thee, O Lord, whose person he beareth, as I preserre thee, mine heavenly Lord, before him: and therethings betwirt them, and which both of them fore x neither forbeare to doe what thou exx 5. 58. preffely commandett, 7 nor doc what thou fory 9.52. biddeft, though mine Husband would have the one forborne, or the other done. All the fore. named, and other like bounden duties, give mee grace, O thou fountaine of all grace, the rather to performe, first . because mine Husband, by ver-4 6.70. tue of his place, is in thy fleed, fo as by fubicating my felfe to him, I am made subicet to thee : but by refusing to be subject to him, I refuse to bee subject to thee. Secondly, b because thou hast made mine Husband as an head to me, by vertue whereof mine owne body which is subject to my head, would be a witnesse against me, if I should not be subject to him. Thirdly, be-¢ 5.72. cau'e in this place and office mine Husband hath a kinde of fellowship with thee O Christ : so as hereby I shall maintaine euen thine honour also. Fourthly, 4 because thou half made mine Hus-45.72. band as a Saujour to me, so as by refusing to bee subject, I shall show my sile vngratefull to him, and injurious to my felfe. Finally, e be-· 5:74. caule I amas well bound to bee subiect to mine Husband, as thy Church is to thee. O Chrift: andhereby I shall gaine assurance to my selfe, and sine enidence to others that I am a true member of the true Church. Therefore fo bow my will to thy Word, O Lord, as these and other like reasons which are grounded on thy Word, may effectually perswade mee to obferue fuch duties to mine Husband as in thy Word are taught me, and that for the honour of thee, and of thy Sonne Jefus Christ mine heavenly head and Husband. Imen. Kk:

The same of the sa
Patternes	of Prayers	Tres 4.
A Prayer for an Husband to vie.	thouhall made so willing to subject her selfe to me. In the good things which shee doth give	(6.10 me an heart to encourage her, t left otherwise the	1 5.21.
T hath pleafed thy dinine wildome (O inuifi-	should be mound to repent thereof. For her fur-
1 bl and incomp chenfible Lord God) to fet an	ther encouragement, give me fuch a spirit as may especial stampe of thine Image on fundry per-	make me " iwecten all the duties I performe to	# 6.23.
foos ouer others, and in particular on Husbands ouer wines, that thereby they might be the more	her with mildenesse, that I be no way * bitter to her : but that by the ritles wherewith I call her,	x 5.13.
able to do them good, Wherefore I thy fernant,	by the z infructions wherewith I feeke to edifie	3 S. 25.
though most voworthy of any dignitie or domi-	her, by b the just and vegent commendements	6 5. 26.
nion, by reason of that slauery whereinto by sin	which at any time I lay upon her, by e yeelding	f 6. 27.
I have brought my felfe, yet being by thine ap-	to her tender conscience by d forbearing to force	d 5.18.
pointment *thine Image and glory to my Wife, in all humility I befeech thee, to pardon all the	her in any thing viberceming her place, by chewing the reason of that which I require of	e 5.29.
finnes whereo! in any kinde I fland guilty before	her, yea, by tving my commanding power, nor	/ S. 30, thee, and in particular those, whereby I have any	too frequently, nor too peremptorily I may ma-	31, way dishonoured that Image of thine which	nitelt much mildnetle and loue. And a feeing that	32. 5 5. 33.
thou haft fet on me; and withall to give me grace whereby I may be enabled to carry my felle wor-	charge which thou, O Lord, half given me ouer thy of thine Image, and that by a confeionable performance of all those duties to my wife, which	that I neither h altogether neglect it, nor rafhly	b 5.34
in thy wordarc enjoyned to me. b The fumme	vic it : but be fure that ' the matter for which I	15.35.
of them all being loue, let loue towards my wife	reproue her be a truth, a knowne truth, and a	,
fo abound in me, as my lookes, fpeech, cariage and	weightie truth : k nor flight report, nor meere	K 5. 36.
actions, whether in commanding reprouing, in- fructing or admonifiling, whether in ving au-		10.00.0
thority or familiarity, whether wee be alone to-	reproofe. Let m my very countenance towards	1 5.38,39. # 5.40,411
gether or in company, incivill affaires or religi-	my wite thew forth amiablenette: and " my ge-	# 5.41.
ous matters, at all times, in all things may be fea-	fture be fo familiar as may not imply any ftrame.	11.3
foned therewith, Suffer not that odious vice of		· 5.43+
e hatred of my wife to feaze on my foule; neither let there be any want of loue in me to her. And that I may the more wifely "fe this Soueraigne		1 5.44. 1 5.45.
grace of loue, give me wisedome to d maintaine	my wives infirmities, then ' by testinelle or pee-	r 5.46.
that authority which thou halt given mee, and	uishnesse, to manifest mine owne weakenesse.	1 that especially by being an example in all good-netle: and keepe me from soloting the fame by any base carriage, harsh dealing, or too servile		∫ § 47.
yeekling in vnlawfull things. That I may the bet-		# 5.49.
ter manage the authoritie which thou half giner	health and fickneffe, particularly in the time	x § 50.
me, let my judgement, I pray thee bee well in-	of her child-bearing, eucry way fo as may hee	1 formed in that communion and fellowship	y answerable to my place and estate, without	y 5.50.
which is betwirt man and wife, left I should too much s infult over her, and let h mine heart be		7 8.53.
fo fet vpon mine owne wife, as the best and fit-		4 5.14.
tell for me : and the reupon delight in ther intire-		1 1
ly : left k by any difrespect of my wife or want	fered, to others, whether children or feruants
of affection to her, my heart should bee drawne	in the house, or poore Saints out of the house:
away from her, or hers from me. As a testimony of mine intire affection to my wife, bend my		6 5.55.
minde 1 withall kindnesset o accept euery good dutie that the performeth to me; nor m carelefly fleighting, nor feornefully rejecting any. Let me	to my meanes, fo long as thee thall live and	c 5, 56, rather bee ready to " answer courtesie with	for this end d to take heed that in my life time	4 5.57.
courtefie, and to grant her humble defires, F without making much adoe thereat, and to 9 accept what she is willing to doe : yea, to fuffer her		0.74 to order house and house hold affaires, according	to make knowne what is meete for her to in	'
to that wisedome and discretion, which it hath	ioy. And while I am with her, make mee pleafed thee to beflow upon her: not ouer-	carefull, as to, proulde for her, to to protect	e 5. 58.
strictly prefling mine authority on her whom	her against such as may seduce her in her soule,	' ' '
	nurc

4 5.1.

66.3.

1 5.3.

d 6.4.

e 5.5.

1 5.6,7.

· 5.8.

6.9.

15,11.

16.12.

m §. 14.

n 5. ! C.

e 6 16. 5.17.

4 ,, 18,

r 5.1 %

§40,11.

			- ;
	for the severall me	mbers of a Family.	P.rt
-	hurt her in her body, or impaire her credit, whe-	I rifing up to their, by flanding before them, by	****
	ther they be children, fernants, or any other. It		1
	hath pleafed thee, O bleffed Sautour, to make thy	placeto them, and h by asking them blefsing;	b 5. 7.
	felfe a patterne to Husbands in louing their	Auoiding all enmannerly rudencile, distante full fatelineste, toyish wantonnesse, ouer-much bold-	15.36
	Wines. O fixe mine eyes on this patterne, that as thou louest thy Church, I may shew my for-	neffe, and high-mindedneffe. Let also that au-	1
	wardnesse in louing my Wife first : and that hin	thority, which thou, O Father of Fathers, hast	i i	truth, i without dissimulation: k freely, 1 with-	giuen my Parents, make me k obedient to them,	kg. 1
	out bie-respects: mpurely, without wanton-	that I fliew not my felfe a childe of Belial, as one
1	neffe: o intirely in the highest degree that law- fully may bee: r constantly, a without variable-	without yoke. And give me grace to fliew forth my obedience, by Horbearing to doe things of	15.12
,	nesse or renolt : yea also r tenderly and cheere-	mine owne head; namely, " to make choice of	E fully, as an head loneth the body, or as man	my calling, "to enter into religious orders, o to	#5.14.
	loueth himselfe. If thou, O Iesus Christ, who	trauellinto other Countries, to binde my felfe	P 5. 16, 17
	art infinitely greater then thy Spoule, the Church, and canst expect to reape no aduan-	fernant, I to marry, a to dispose my Parents goods, I to order mine owne apparell, or I to	8 c. 15 iz z.
ı	tage or benefit from her, vouchfafeft to loue her,	binde my felfe by vow, without my Parents con-	76
1	and to performe all effects of loue for her good;	fent. To fliew that this my passine obedience a-	1 9 25.
-	fhould I thinke much to loue my Wife, who is	rifeth not from fullennesse; give me, 1 pray thee,
i	in many respects as I my selfe am, and a great helpe, comfort, and benefit to me? or should I	a minde pliable to my Parents will, being rea- dy to "obey their commandements in comming	15:7.
į	thinkemuch to performe any dutie of loue to	when they call, going whither they fend, waiting	4 5 18.
1	her? t Instinct of nature teacheth all men to	on them, and doing what bufinests they enjoyne,	i
١	loue their bodies: But thou hast made my Wife	(* without any fcorne or other like vice:) And	x S. 1.
1	to me as my body; we two by thy diuine institu- tion, are one sless. Shall not then this thine or-	y willing also not onely to hearken to, but also obediently to observe my Parents instruction; and	J.S. 30.
l	dinancebe of more force with mee, to move mee	2 patiently to beare all their reproofes, and a cor-	35.310
ı	to loue my Wife? O Lord GOD, let it bee of	rections: b carefully amending that for which	4 8 22.
ł	force, that fo I may honour thine I mage plan-	I shallbe inftly reproved, or corrected, without	65.14
١	ted in mee, through Jesus Christ the head of that true Catholike Church, whereof I beleeue my	difdaine or obstinacy. For this end, d purge out of me an ouer-weening conceit of my selfe: that	d 5 37.
1	selfe to be a true member. Amen.	I may labour to bring my judgement and will, to
1	A Prayer for a Childe to vie.	the bent of my Parents: yea, that I may e in	e 6. 36.
-		fuch things as are indifferent (though I conceine
١	Oall things, who having made Man male	peremptory pressing of them, after I have in all
١	and female, didit fo bleffe them, as by vertue of	humility rendred my reasons for the varrect-
i	thy blefsing, they are a meanes under thee of	neffe thereof, yeeldobedience, and not too obfu-
1	their childrens being, and bringing forth into	nately fland against their express will. Onely
l	this world; and in this respect, are as Gods to their Children, standing in thy roome, and bea.	workein me fucha respect of thee, O Father of fathers that if my Parents command that which
1	ring thine image: Worke in mee, I humbly be-	thou hast forbidden, or forbid that which thou	15.32
l	feechthee, fuch a refpect of my Parents, as in re-	haft commanded; I may rather obey thee, then
١	gard of their authority ouer mee, and affection	them; and s not fo flatter or fearethem, asto	$ $ 38.
Ì	towards me, I may both * lone and b feare them: tellifying thereby, my entire affection to them,	finne gainft thee. But in this refufall to obey them, make me wife in testifying all humble reue-
1	and honourable opinion of them: and further	rence and due respect. And in regard of these manifesting the same by all reuerence and obedi-	necessities, whereuntomy Parents, being mor-
ĺ	ence. By reuerence, in e refraining much speech	tall perfons, may fall; worke in mee fachpicty
١	before them, in patient hearkening to them, d in giuing renerend titles to them, and humble and	and pitty, as may make mee ready to fliew all brecompence, and not proclaims more then ł	ready answeres, without pride or floutnesse.	monstrous ingratitude by neglecting them. Give	h g. 34.
١	And when in abfence of my Parents, I have oc-	me therefore, I pray thee, wifedome and willing-ı	casion to speake of them, give mee wisedome, so	nes fo to beare with their infirmities, as I neither	16.42 to order my speech, as it may testifie a reuerend	leffe reuerently effect their place and perform nor more negligently performe any duty to them:
1	refeect of them to all that heare me. Keepe mee therefore from discouering their infirmities, and	much lefte dif-respect or despite them. For this from broaching any vntruths of them. To my re-	end, gine mee grace k to paffe-by, as much as	45.41.
	uerend speech, let my#dutifull carriage to-	may be, their infirmities, and to take no more no-
1	wards my Parents, be an fiverable, by halting to	ceale & couer them, that others may not fee the.	S
1	meete them when they are comming to me, by	Kk. 1

[ S. 59.

85 61. h 5. 63. i 5. 64. l 5. 65. l 5 66.

m 6.67.

u 5. 68.

p 6. 72.

95.73.

15.75.

15.76.

4 5, 2. 6 5. 3.

6 5. 4: d 5 5.

16.6.

f §. 7.

g $.8.

71.

06.69,70,

1	Patiernes (	of Prayers	Treat.
	Let my picty and pitty to my Parents most shew	not to docit : an inniolable Law requireth it, no
S-13-	it felte in fuch in cafuall extremities, as are not	creature can gine dispensation against it. 1 This	f 5.63.
,	finfull, but by the hand of God laid vpon them.	dutie is the ground and foundation of all duties
5.44	And in a fuch cafes as may make them stand in	due to man. 5 Thou hast made an expresse and	g S. 64.
	need of fuecour from me, make mee most ready	ample promife to fech as are confeionable in the	1
	to doe my ytmost endeauour therein: as in sick-	performance thereof. On all these grounds I doe	!
	neffeto vifit them, in time of mourning to com-	the more carneflly intreate thee, O heauenly	1
	fort them, in want to relieue them, indanger to	Father, to forgine me, as all other my finnes, fo	1
	protect them, and in any other neede to helpe	in particular, my negle & of dutie to my Parents,	į.
	them. And if it please thee to take my Parents	and to give me thy Spirit in fuch measure, as may out of this world before me, let the continuance	enable mee for the time to come better to per-	l
	of my dutifull respect towards them, be mani-	forme the fame : and that for Iclus Christhis	1
		fake, thy Sonne, and my Sauiour; to whom with	l
5-45	fefted by o a decent burial of their corpes, nei-	thee, O Father, and the holy Ghoft, bee all ho-ther precenting their departure by entring upon	nour and glory, now and for euer, Amen.	l .
	their estate before they are dead; nor neglecting	nour and giory, now and for each, same, their dead corps, through greedinesse after their	A Chu anan fan Tharante togife	1
	goods, nor diffurbing their funerall by conten-	A Prayer for Parents to vse.	1
§ 46.	tions about that which they leave. In perfor-	TRom mu heart I ack nowledge thee O ster	İ
5 40.	ming this duty, give mee wisedome to keepe ra	From my heart I acknowledge thee, O eter- nall and Almighty Lord God, in whom wee	Trert.
	meane, that I bee neither ouer-lauish nor ouer-	line more and have our being to bear he and	1
	bale. And for maintaining my Parents Christi-	line, mone, and have our being, to beethe onely	l
-	an credit enen after their deaths, worke in mee a	true Father of all: wee are all thine off-fpring,	1
§- 47-	willingnetle answerable to my ability, 9 to pay	Yet it pleafeth thee fo tarreto communicate thy
5.48.	their infl debts, to fupprefle cuill reports raifed	glorious image to children of men, asto make	1
- 49-	against them, and to 1 imitate the good vertues	them Parents, by bringing forth children into
10.	that were in them : t anoyding all superstitious	the world. An high honour this is, whereof it
	customes of praying, or procuring others to pray	hath pleased thee to make me partaker by giving	1
5.51.	for their foules after they are departed; and the	me children. In this respect I acknowledge my	} heathenish practice of seeking to revenge wrongs	felfe much bound to doe my vtmost endeauour	1 done to them. Now that I may the better ap-	for their good. In this duty, as in many other,	] proue my felfe to thee, O Searcher of the hearts,	I here humbly confesse before thee, that I have	1
	in performing all the forenamed duties, give me	exceedingly failed: and I earneftly intreate	1
5 m.	vnderstanding and grace to performe them x in	thee, O God of mercy, for Icfus Christhis fake,	ł
	the Lord, confeionably for the Lords fake; hear-	to be mercifully nto me, and to pardon both all	i
	tily, as to the Lord; cheerefully, because the	other my finnes, and those also in patticular,	l
	Lord loueth cheerefulnesse; reuerendly, with due	which have beene committed against this hono-	1 respect to the image of God; constantly, with-	rable place wherein thou haft fet me. And with-	1
	out wearisomnesse, and so as no sinne bee com-	all, I befeech thee to enable mee to walke more	l
5.50	mitted against thee, O God: but y not on by-	worthy of this honour, by procuring good to	!
, ,	respects, deceitfully, grudgingly, rudely, onely	those that by thee are committed to my charge.	l
	to please men. And as thou hast made both my	Plant therefore in my heart, an intire loue of	45,2.
	Parents a joynt meanes of my being, fo worke	my children, and that fo ordered, as I may nei-	1
5.14.	in me z a like respect of them both; that neither	ther b want naturallaff. Ation, nor yet too much	69.3.
	achildish fondnesse draw me so wholly to respect	dote vpon them. And because all ability of do-	1
5.57-	my Mother, as I neglect duty to my Father, nor	ing good to them, and all blefsing upon the	1
	prefumptuous arrogancy make mee despise my	meanes, vied for their good, commeth from	1
	Motheral acknowledge, O Lord, that my Pa-	thee; give me, I pray thee, e the spirit of Prayer,	65.4
5. 52.	rentsare to me b in thy flead, and bearethine i-	at al times, on all occasions, to begge enery good	79.4
	mage, fo as in obeying them, I obey thee: in re-		1
	belling against them, I rebell against thee. I ac-	graciously to heare me, and keepe mee, as from	1
		a carek se negle of this duty, so much more § 60.	knowledg alfo, that it is most right to obey the:	from all rash and wicked imprecations, which	d 5.5.
	Allaw, which is the rule of right, the place of Pa-		1
	rents, and the defert of Parents, require as much:		1 :
	not to obey them, is against thy law, O Lord,a-	rents & Children, e It hathpleafed thee, O good gainst common equity and light of nature, a-	God, to extend thy gracious promifes even to gainst the place and defert of my Parents. Thy	the Children, and generation of the rightcous:	l
	Word reflifieth, that for children to obey their	let therefore my faith lerein, the more prouoke	1
áς κι.	Parents, is a well pleafing to thee : thou doft ac-	me to walke vprightly and rightcoufly before	100
	cept, thou wilt reward fuch. Thou therfore haft	thee; and not think by visual or vidue get-
5	capielly charged them fo to doe: fo as it is no	ting or keeping the goods of this world (where-
2	Lashuran matter left to our choice to doe it or	by a curfe is oft treatured vp)to doe good for my	1
	and the state of t	children

19.40

19.00

16 0

05 50.

0 % "1

25. 72

15 55.

15.34.

15 550

Ç. 56.

A 5. 87

y $ 12.

35.194

45 13

35.6:

CE 62.

d & 53

05,04

f 4. 15.

gs. 15.

b 3. 675

contention and vnneceffary forces may not arife.

While I line, make me fo prouident in ordering mine estate, as I e may have fomething to leave verto my children, and not fouer-lauishly fpend

all my felfe; or leane an entangled, or peeled, or unfettled eftare. Whereasit hathpleafed thee,()

Lord, to give me many children, worke in mee

s an impartiall respect to every one of them: yet fo, as hi take notice of them, which are better then others, to encourage them the more: and according to the warrant of thy Word, and cit ftome of the time, and place where I line, I to leaue my maine inheritance to my eldeft sonne, and in that respect to be so much the more pro-

(k ynleffe there be inft cause to disinherit him )

P §. 25. their better welfare, give mee wisedome q well 95.26. to educate them, t not fuffering them to haue too r 6.27. much liberty, but I teaching them good manf 5. 18, 29. ners, lest they prouet ouer-hold and rude: and 1 5.30. *training them up to some good calling: where-# 6.31. in make me wife x to choose a calling lawfull in # 6. 71. it felfe, and fit for my chi'les ability, yea the best and most vsefull calling; left v by neglect thereof, y 5. 33. I cause my childe to runne into many mischieses. Aboue all, make me confcionable in training vp my children vnto z true picty; * grounding enery ₹ $ 34. principle that is taught them, on thy word; exer-45.35. cifing them to read the Scriptures, catechizing them daily, making spirituall vses of the speciall cuidences of thy prouidence, opening to them the mysteries of the rites of the Church, making knownethy great workestothem, putting them to religious Schoolemasters, and being my selfe a patterne of picty vnto them: b left otherwife $ 6.36. I thew toolittle regard to the faluation of their foules. That good nurture may get the deeper rootingin the hearts of my children, make mee. wife in taking the first opportunity, even while £ 6:38.

they are tender and pliable, and a not putting it off till they grow too head-strong. Yea, after I have begun give me e patience to hold on therin, and! not to let goe the reines, after they have beene for fome time well held in a but rather & agree of their age.

Part 2.

forth, or nurfing it.

e G. S.

If a mans

wife bee

breedings

hee may pray thus, b §. 9.

i §. 10.

$ 6.11.12.

16.17,18,

m 6. 20.

11 9. 23.

06. 24.

d 5. 39.

$ 40.

3.41. 25.42.

ac.

	Patternes	of Prayers	Treat.
	other way, then by parting mine inheritance,	(not diffeontentedly) " with all the quickeneffe and diligence that I can ( not lazily and negli-	#5.14.
athersor	prouide for them.  And concerning the children of my bed-fellow,	gently) doe feruice vinto him. And let my good	1
dothers tilaw	of whom I am not the naturall Parent, but by ver-	will to my Mafter be manifefted by * all faithful-   neffe,in well-discharging the trust that is or shall
ay thus	the of our marriage in the place of one, worke in me	be committed to me: and that y about his goods, ray.	1 a Parent-like affettion to them, and care for them,	in a carefull preferring of them, that they bee
9.71.	endeauouring to doe a hat good I can for them, enen	not loft, spoiled, or any way impaired under my	1
5.72.	as if they were mine owne; but m to doe no wrong	hands and in increasing them to the vtmost of	1
3. 7.	at all to them.	my power, without all manner of fraud. About	45. 28.
	As I defire that thou, O good God, fhouldeft		1
	fhew thy felfe agracious Father to me. fo my de- fire is to fhew my felfe a good Parent to my chil-	charge, make me faithfull in endeauouring what dren. For the better accomplishing of this my	I can, that ball may prosper under my hand, and	b §.29.
	defire, give me thy Spirit, O heavenly Father, for	that nothing, through my default, milearry. A- bout my Masters e secrets, yea, and infirmities, thy Sonne my Saujour Iefus Christ his fake.	make me faithfull in concealing them. Make me	e S. 3p.
	Amen.	alfo forward, euenfor my Mafters greater benefit, to be a helpefull to my fellow-feruants in	d 6.31.
	A Prayer for a Sernant to use.	what I may; by good example, good counfell
	Tuesday Character and the 111 c	and encouragement. e About my Masters chil-	e 5. 32.
5 1.24	The eplace of that autority, under which I am, and of that subjection wherein by thy proui-	dren, giue me wisedome to shew all good respect	l
	dence, Omost wise God, I am set, I acknow-	to them, as beholding my Masters image in them, and to doe all the good I can to them any way:	l
	ledge tobe agreeable to thy Word: worke in	not to be churlish to them, or carelesse of them;	ł
§.4.	metherefore, I humbly befrech thee, bfuch an	nor to purloine any thing from them, nor to cor-
3.4.	awfull dread of my Master, as may make me de-	rupt them by euill communication or converfati-	}
	firous to pleafe, and fearefull to offend him: and	on, nor to allure them to any vnlawfull, or cuill
§.5.	keepe me from e despissing, or lightly esteeming	thing; nor to enucigle their affections either to him. Let mee rather manifest all due respect to	commit folly, or to marry with me. Yea, kt my
567.	him in speech and carriage: 4 In speech, by re-	faithfulnesse be such to my Master, as f not to bee	(5.33.
	fraining it in his presence without good leave	moued by his bed-fellow to doe any wrong to and inft occasion; by reuerend titles when I doe speake to him; by a present answer when he spea-	him, nor to offer to doe any wrong to her: But keth to me; by truth in my fpeech, and by fpea.	rather to affoord them the best helpe I can, euen in their weakenesse, or in any time of need; and	8934
5.8.	king of him, good and no euill. In carriage, by	not in any fuch case vngratefully to lease them.
,	dutifull obeifance, and other reuerend behauiour;	In althings concerning my Mafter give me grace
5.9.	yea, and by fobricty in my apparell: fauoiding	h fo to doe for him, as I would have others doe	b 5.35.
	all rudenesse, malepertnesse, and pride. As a fur-	torme; or as I would doe for my felfe. For this ther enidence of my high efteeme of my Mafter,	end, fo bring my indgement to the bent of my	i 9. 36.
§, 1c. §. 11,11.	make mee obedient to him, and that by h not	Matters in indifferent things, as I may think that
3 ,	daring to doe things of mine owne head, as to goe hither or thither, to doe this or that; to mar-	meete which he doth, & not be ouercon-ceited
	ry, to dispose his goods, or to goe away from	in my felfe, in preferring mine owne indgement before his. And kin cafe I cannot in indgement
1	him without his confent ; but rather by a ready	thinke that best which he doth, yet on his reso.	45.37.
. 13. 5.14.	yeelding to his commandements, and by k an ob-	Inte command, make me to yeeld to that which fernant marking of his instructions, especially	he will have done, I fo it bee not against thee, O	10.0
arc.	when they tend to picty : and in that respect,	Lord, and against thy reuealed will. Herein glue	19.38.
$.16.	m neither to be loth to dwell with a religious Ma-	megrace to preferre thee, the Lord of Spirits,
1	fter, nor to mutter against his instructions, nor	before my Master after the slesh; whether in for-
- 1	to be more negligent in his businesse. And in case he be prouoked either to reproue or correct me;	bearing any finne against thy Word, or in doing make men patient in bearing all reproofes and	any duty expressy iniogned in thy Word If at a.
5.174	corrections, and wife o in amending whatformer	me wiscdome m to choose a good, religious one,
5, 19.	ithe for which I am justly reproued or corre-	and with him to bee willing to abide, that fo I	m 5.39.
	cted, and that P without answering or turning a-	may obey him in thee, O Lord. My Master is	# § -408
1	gaine, or running away, or feeking reuenge. Sec-	to me in thy fleed, and beareth thy image; fo as į	ing my Master hath power to punish me, give me	in obeying him, I obey thee; in rebelling against § 1c.	a minde 9 fo to dread his power, as I no way pro-	him, I rebell against thee : o in being a seruant	6.4T.
1	uoke his wrath: but rather in all fingleneffe of	to man, I amthy free-man: P It is thine expresse	P 5. 42.
. 11.	heart (not in hypo rifle with eye-feruice) for configence fake (not on by-refpects) willingly,	will that I should obey my Master; so as it is a necessary duty; no creature can dispense with it:

9-43. If it be reward Make a perfort

If it be well performed of thou wilk abound untly reward it, with temporall and eternall bleflings. Make metherefore, I pray thee, conclionable in performing all the fore-named duties, and forgiue me all my negligences therein, and all other my transgreflions against thy bleffed Law, for I-fiss Christ his take, my only Lord and Sauiour.

A fernant har but houly a Miffress may ofthis prayer, if he put miltress for master, and she, her, here, for hee, him, his. This prayer may alighe vised for masser and misself those by adding the classify, and by misself when the tion is made of master, and by twening the singular number into the light.

A Praier for a Master to vse.

A sall other children of salam, and Salan, fo I themselves slaves of sinne and Salan, so I also have justly deserved to be, as cursed Cham, a feruant of scruants. Yet notwithstanding it hath pleased thee Octernall & Almighty Lord of heauen & earth, to vouchfate unto me a poore finner, this honour, to be a mafter ouer feruants. That I may in mine inward disposition and spirituall condition beare thine Image as well as in mine outward function, forgiue me, I most humbly befeech thee, all my finnes, and beate downe all my corruptions which doe any way rife vp against thy blessed will; And give me wisdome to make choyce of good fernants, fuch as haue beene well educated, and doe give good evidence of thy feare to polletle their hearts: such as may be in some measure fit for the worke whereunto they shall be set; and such as are of poore and meane estate, to whom chargey may be shewed in entertaining them : and b not fo to dote on money, as to refuse all that are not able to bring a great portion with them. As for fuch feruants as now I have, or hereafter shall have, give me grace well to vie them, and for that end wifely to maintaine that authoritie which thou half given me, and that by making my felfe a good patterne to them, by keeping them in awe, and by vfing mine authority to as d I loofe it not by basenesse, remifneste ouer much familiaritie, or by letting loofe the raines to my feruants : e no nor by too great rigour and aufterity in looke, speech, or action. Let my authority be exercised in I commanding things agreeable to thy word, and & not in making mine owne will a rule or a law,h Such things as thou. O Lord, requireft fernants to doc, make me carefull in holding my feruants thereunto; i not suffering them to doe what they lift. But k in things indifferent giue me wisdome duly ro-weigh what my feruants can, or may conneniently doe: 1 imposing nothing upon them aboue their ftrength, or vnbefeeming their lex, or not answerable to their place, or against their naturall inclination, or against their conscience.

" Great is that power which thou, O Lord, haft m 6, 12. given to a mafter over his fervants, and that euen to correct them : but yet " haft thou not gi-# 6. 14. uen him power ouer his feruants life : o Keepe me therefore from vling luch cruelty as may any way cause death, or impaire strength; and from putting any of my fernants upon any fuch defperate attempt as may endanger the fame. Where rebuke may cause amendment P let me not bee p 4.16. forward to firike. If need require with firoakes to correct my feruants, give me wifdome well to observe their condition, their disposition, the fault committed, and accordingly to order correction. 4 As for my feruants mariage, make me fo care-9 6.17,18. full of their good therein, as I neither ouer violently against their confent force them thereto, nor ouer-long hold them there-from : much letle if they be maried, feeke to difanull that mariage, or to keepe them one from another. And if there be just occasion of passing them over from my felfe to another, I let that other be fuch an one as 6.10. may doe them good, and not euill. But while they are with me, give me a minde f to doe to them that which is just and couall. As a matter of Inflice, let ' my care oner them extend to their 16, 21. foules, for the edification thereor, by inftructing them daily in the principles of religion, by caufing them to goe to the publick ministry of the Word, by taking an account of their proficiency, and by daily prayer, " not thinking it enough to allow things needfull for their body: wherein notwithstanding make mee carefull to prouide for them * wholfome, and fufficient food in due × 6. 27. feafon (neither y pinching their bellies with y S. 24. want, nor pampering them too delicately) and fit and decent apparell. Give me wildome also 3 5. 252 fo to a moderate their labour, as no taske about 4 6. 26. their ability be imposed upon them, but that ball 6 6. 27. things meet for the worke whereunto they are put be allowed them, and c fufficient, and feafoc 6. 28, nable reft and intermiffion, and that for fleepe, 29, 30. for workes of picty (especially on the Lords day) and for direcreation. In case any of my semants d 6. 21. e tall ficke, make me confcionable in prouiding | $ 5.32. what may be requilite for the spiritual comfort of their foules, for the cale of their bodies, and for reconcry of health; or, if they die, for their decent buriall: 1 that I fliew not my felle inhu- 1 5.33. mane by putting them, when they are not able to helpe themselves, out of my house, or letting them lie in my house succourlesse, or setting the charge of all that is frent on them in their weaknesse vpon their owne fcoarc or adding by vpbraiding speaches more griefe to them, or suffering them to die as beafts without any spirituall instructions, or neglecting their dead corps. 8 In regard of my fernants temporall efface, let my care thereof be extended not only to the time of their abode with me, but to the time that may be after they are gone from me, that they may be able to line of them felues, and to doe good to others.

16.10. 46.11.

4 6, 2,

65.3.

r 5.4.

d 5.5.

15.6.

f 6.7.

$ 6.8. b 5.9.

15.12.

For that end h let me keepe them alwayes well | vnder hard fernitude, ' It any of them proue | occupied and free from idlenette: 1 exercifing good, kinde, and faithfull fernants, give mee a

Treat 8

them to some particular calling, or k setting minde to have them in high account, to take nother to some speciall worke, lest by my care-tice of all their goodness, to protect them against vniult acculations, to recompence their goodnesse, and f not to passe it ouer as not regarded, 15.45. nor to exaggerate their failings nor to fend them away emptic, I am a feruant vader thee, the it 6.46. great Lord and Mafter of all, and to thee I must lefneffe in appointing to enery one their owne taske they Lamade idle and negligent. Let me alto, "by keeping my eye on them as much as I can, yea, by a exhortation, admonition, perfwation, promifes, and other like faire meanes, or, if they preuaile not, then by rebukes, threats, and corrections ftirre them vp to doe their dutie. As 46.28. 15.36.

£ 5.3-. 1 s. se.

m 6. ta. # 5.40.

ø S. 41.

1 5. 43.

giue an account of gouerning my feruants: " In # 5.47. relation to thee, I and my feruants are fellowfor fuch as grow impudent and obstinate, and servants: * Thou art in heaven, whence thou be- | 6 5, 49, will not by faire nor foule meanes be reclaimed, holdest all wrongs done by masters to feruants. give me courage to calt them out of my house, and canst abundantly recompened all the good, left they prove an ill example to others. To fer. and severely revenge all the evill which Masters uants that are hired for wages, let my justice be doe to their feruants : 7 With thee is no respect 1, $.40. manifefted by allowing sufficient wages, by gi- of persons: On these and other like grounds uing it in due feafon, and by paying it to the full, keepe me from abusing that authority which P that I cause not their cry to ascend into thine winder thee I have oner my scruants, and eares, by reason of any visits or hard viage of make mee conscionable in performing such them, After sufficient service done by them, duties as in my place thou requirest of mee. make me willing to fuffer them to provide for through I s s v s G H R 1 s T my only Lord themselues, that they may not alwaies bee kept and Saujour. Amen.

FINIS.

